

Cosmic Forgiveness

To Give and Receive Cosmic Forgiveness

Sometimes there have been those who have done us wrong. They may have misjudged you in a situation and then suspected you, pointed you out or even accused you or legally accused you for something you absolutely didn't do. Sometimes a long time may pass after such an accusation, a long time before you are able to prove your innocence and to get everything straightened out, so that things can be judged in a fair and just way. Sometimes so much time can have passed, that the one who accused has already died. But inside you the injustice continues to hurt and the accusation feels forever present. Sometimes someone has done this to you and sometimes you have been the culprit.

Now, before The New Earth, some of these accusations should be straightened out. If you have some of your own, make sure to take care of them and purify them through Cosmic Understanding. This process can help with family members, relationships, friends, neighbours etc. It helps to free you both and maybe even help with a more loving connection.

Process of Cosmic Forgiveness if you have done wrong.

- Light a candle.
- Sit down in front of it with dignity and honesty in your mind and heart.
- Close your eyes and see the person in front of you that you haven't been nice to, that you can honestly say that you haven't treated right and have thought ill of.

If you have done wrong, say inside of you:

What you have done wrong. Then say:
"I turn to the Universe and ask for support and guidance in this forgiveness process. I ask for forgiveness for what I have done to _____, because of bitterness and hurt feelings. I ask that the Universe's Light of Light shall take _____ in its embrace and purify _____'s mind and light it up to a good memory of me. Let that which has been done be undone so that that which is new can shine clearly on _____'s future path.
I hereby open the Force of the Cosmic Forgiveness and let it work for me. Let the misunderstanding be dissolved in the present now. " Think or say: Adinn Cha ra, Adann.

Process of Cosmic Forgiveness if you have been wrongly accused.

- Light a candle.
- Sit down in front of it with dignity and honesty in your mind and heart.
- Close your eyes and see the person in front of you that hasn't been nice to you, that you can honestly say that they haven't treated you right and have thought ill of you.

If they have done wrong, say inside of you:

What they have done wrong. Then say:
"I turn to the Universe and ask for support and guidance in this forgiveness process. I ask that _____ shall now stand before the Universe's Light of Light and see me for what I am, innocent and pure. I ask that _____'s accusations against me shall fall now. Let my innocence be seen to shine clearly. I ask to be forgiven before the Universe's Light of Honesty. I hereby open the Force of the Cosmic Forgiveness and let it work for _____ so that _____ can in truth see me. Let the misunderstandings dissolve in this present now." Think or say: Adirah Kinn cha na, Adann.

You can also use the Sign below to send out to the person. This Sign is Cosmic Forgiveness.

Place the sign, sign facing upwards, in your left palm, with your right palm over it for a few moments. Then hold your right palm out, like a Stop sign, to the person in your Cosmic Forgiveness process.

This Process has been given to us by Channie Cha from the NET courses, to help with our Spiritual Evolutions and Shit to New Earth.
